"Strong partnerships between families and educators create endless opportunities for children to grow and succeed."

Reflection on June 2026

Canora recap:

June was a month filled with creativity, joy, learning, and special celebrations. Our children enjoyed exploring nature during our Butterfly & Bug Exploration Day, where they observed a variety of insects and created bug-themed fun crafts. Our Rainbow Science Day was full of colorful experiments and hands-on activities that sparked curiosity and creativity.

We also celebrated Father's Day with heartfelt cards and crafts, making it a memorable occasion for children and their families. Overall, June was filled with learning, laughter, and meaningful moments, and we look forward to more exciting adventures in July.

Northend recap:

June was a very exciting and creative month for our children. They had a wonderful time during Outdoor Art Day, expressing themselves through painting, sidewalk chalk, and nature-inspired crafts while enjoying the fresh breeze outside. This activity encouraged wonderful imagination, teamwork, and artistic explorations.

The month was also filled with special celebrations like Father's Day, where children created thoughtful crafts to demonstrate their love and feelings for their fathers. June also brought many opportunities for creativity, discovery, and joyful memories, and we are excited for all the fun ahead in July.
